View the account balance with the coin counter WallNotes Description: WallNotes is a lightweight utility that can attach your most important notes to the desktop wallpaper, displaying to-do lists or reminders in colored, transparent boxes. Place transparent notes on your desktop WallNotes installs as a standalone application, so it takes up hardly any space on your PC. The idea behind WallNotes is to provide a transparent desktop note that anyone can use to store to-do lists and notes. Unfortunately, the application is not too fit for storing reminders, as there is no alarm to notify you about an event. Instead, it mixes things up a bit and provides a news reader for the Forex market. Although useful, the news box is a tool that targets specific users, so it might happen that not many appreciate it. As a recommendation, it would be great to have locked or hidden notes, a calendar to store events, and a notification system to implement reminders, features that would turn WallNotes into a more desirable personal organizer.
